AREA ATTORNEY NAMED AS ONE OF TOP ONE HUNDRED IN AMERICA

Kevin J. Kinney, Esquire is one of the most active and successful labor attorneys in the country

Broken Arrow, OK—Kevin J. Kinney, Esquire, a prominent area labor attorney, has recently been named to the list of Top One Hundred Labor Attorneys in the United States for 2008, as compiled by Labor Relations Institute, Inc., a leading industry information source.

Inclusion on the list puts Kinney in the top one percent of labor attorneys in the U. S., making Kinney one of the most active attorneys representing companies in National Labor Relations Board-monitored elections.

Kinney made the elite list by being selected from more than 8,900 attorneys evaluated by Labor Relations Institute. The honor of “Top One Hundred” was determined by the number of NLRB elections in which each attorney provided representation and the success of those election outcomes.

“To be included in the Top One Hundred is a tremendous honor,” according to LRI President Donald P. Wilson. “It acknowledges these attorneys’ professionalism and long-term dedication to their clients.”
